University Extension

Philip A. Greasley, Ph.D., is Dean of University Extension.

University Extension has a University-wide mission acting in cooperation with the University’s academic colleges and departments. University Extension assists University academic units in providing academic outreach courses and services for students throughout Kentucky, the United States, and internationally. University Extension programs, schedules, technologies, and delivery systems are used to enhance learning and minimize barriers of time, distance, and physical disability.

University Extension includes Distance Learning Programs, Evening and Weekend College, the Independent Study Program, Japanese Saturday School and Japanese Programs, Summer School, and the new Winter Intersession.

DISTANCE LEARNING PROGRAMS

Distance Learning Programs provide a wide variety of faculty and student support services to enable development and delivery of credit courses and programs throughout the Commonwealth of Kentucky and around the world, with over 6,000 enrollments annually. Distance Learning students enroll in 10 full degree programs, over 600 courses, 5 certificates and state-mandated training while residing in over 200 cities and towns in more than 100 Kentucky counties. Distance Learning Programs delivers course work in cooperation with other University Extension departments, the Teaching and Academic Support Center, UK academic departments and colleges, and other institutions of higher education. Available advanced delivery modes include interactive video, World Wide Web instruction, video-desktop conferencing, and telecourses offered on KET and UKTV Channel 16. Specific support includes:

- technical coordinators at each of the interactive video sites throughout Kentucky;
- support of Web development to enhance distance learning courses;
- extensive Distance Learning student support services;
- marketing for Distance Learning courses and programs;
- coordination with Distance Learning Library Services; and
- coordination of distance learning networks including scheduling and troubleshooting.

For more information on Distance Learning Programs, call (859) 257-3377; or go to: www.uky.edu/DistanceLearning.

EVENING AND WEEKEND COLLEGE

Evening and Weekend College provides convenient courses, services, and extended hours for students throughout Central Kentucky. College credit courses and degree programs allow students to pursue a degree, enhance job skills, change careers, or simply learn for enjoyment. Many Evening and Weekend College students are pursuing educational goals while balancing academic commitments with family and job responsibilities and time constraints.

Adults desiring to enroll in UK courses without seeking a degree may do so as nondegree undergraduate students or post-baccalaureate graduate students. College credit earned as a nondegree student may be applied to a degree program at a later date when the student meets University requirements for admission in degree-seeking status.

Students who have been denied admission to UK as degree-seeking students, applicants under current UK academic or disciplinary suspension, and individuals currently under suspension at other institutions may not enroll in UK evening and weekend courses.

For detailed information about undergraduate nondegree student status, refer to the Undergraduate Admission section of this Bulletin. For specific information about post-baccalaureate graduate student status, refer to The Graduate School admission section of this Bulletin. Information about the Evening and Weekend College may be obtained from:

Evening and Weekend College Withdrawal and Refund Policy

Students enrolled exclusively in Evening and Weekend (sections 401-450) courses who officially withdraw from the University or from one or more courses are entitled to a full refund of all fees paid for those courses if they withdraw before the end of the second week of classes. Students who officially withdraw after the second week of class but before the end of the fourth week of classes are entitled to a refund of one-half the fees paid. No fees will be refunded to students who withdraw after the end of the fourth week of classes. Requests for refunds should be made in the Evening and Weekend College office.

The request to withdraw must be made in writing. The date on which the letter or card is postmarked will be used as the official withdrawal date.

INDEPENDENT STUDY PROGRAM

The UK Independent Study Program assists individuals from middle school onward in achieving their educational aspirations. Whether students live nearby or around the world, traditional mail delivery, electronic mail, and online offerings provide vehicles for convenient high-quality middle, high school, and college courses suited to their needs and preferences.

UK Independent Study offers over one hundred UK college credit correspondence courses, sixty-five high school credit courses in English, social studies, mathematics, business education, health, foreign languages, and sciences, and a rising number of middle school courses in English, social studies, science, and mathematics.

ISP High School Division

The High School Division offers a complete curriculum of basic courses required for graduation from Kentucky high schools. All courses are taught by certified teachers, and all students are required to pass a proctored, comprehension...
sive final examination. All courses are offered in the correspondence format, but an increasing number include an e-mail option for transmission of assignments.

In addition, the High School Division offers Advanced Placement courses in calculus, Spanish, and English. These courses are designed to prepare high school students for Advanced Placement tests.

Also offered by the High School Division are twenty-two Middle School (Grades 6, 7, and 8) courses for 1/2 credit (one semester) in basic subjects such as Language Arts/English, Integrated Math, Earth Science, Life Science, and Social Studies.

ISP College Division

Students enrolling for college-level courses must satisfy course prerequisites, but official transcripts are not required. Admission to the University of Kentucky is not a requirement for enrollment in ISP college credit course work.

Students pursuing degrees at the University of Kentucky should be aware of the following regulations concerning independent study (correspondence): courses:

1. No more than 30 credit hours of the total required for an undergraduate degree may be earned through independent study courses. No more than one-third of the requirements for a major may be earned through independent study courses.

2. Students may enroll for an independent study course any time during the calendar year and have one year from the date of enrollment in which to finish the course. Students may obtain a four-month extension.

3. Students in residence at the University must have permission from their dean to register for an independent study course.

4. Hours earned by independent study will be credited in the term in which the student enrolled.

5. Graduate or professional credit is not granted for work taken by independent study. Graduate students, however, may do independent study work, and the credit earned can be applied toward undergraduate major and/or minor fields for certification purposes.

JAPANESE SATURDAY SCHOOL

The University of Kentucky is charged by the Commonwealth of Kentucky to operate the Japanese Saturday School. University Extension manages the School, which provides Japanese-related instruction, offered in Japanese, to interested students from first through twelfth grade. The Japanese Saturday School is located in offices at the Tates Creek Elementary School campus in Lexington.

For information, call (859) 257-4048.

SUMMER SCHOOL

The University offers two summer sessions between the spring and fall semesters: a first summer session in May followed by a second summer session beginning in June. Summer School courses provide educational enrichment and give students the opportunity to accelerate their academic progress. Information regarding admission procedures and Summer School calendar dates are listed in the University Calendar at the front of this Bulletin.

The Summer School Schedule of Classes is available in December each year. For information or for a copy of the schedule, contact:
