Winter Intersession 2016-2017

December 19, 2016 - January 10, 2017

What Is Winter Intersession?
Winter Intersession is a short, intensive study program that runs between the fall and spring semesters. Students may concentrate on a single area of study or master a skill; enrich their study beyond the normal curriculum; lighten their fall or spring semester academic loads; participate in an internship or educational travel; accelerate their academic progress; or remain on schedule for graduation. The University of Kentucky is excited to join a growing number of colleges and universities that provide this inter-semester course of study.

The 2016-17 Winter Intersession will include traditional on- and off-campus instruction, Internet courses, and opportunities for educational travel. Prospective students must be aware that Winter Intersession course content and rigor are comparable to other semesters and that the short term requires intensive study. Thus, students are permitted to enroll for one course only. Students must focus their time and attention on that course, using the intensive class period and the holiday break, where applicable, to study and complete course assignments. Students with low grade-point averages or significant competing time commitments during the Winter Intersession period should not enroll.

Registering for Winter Intersession

Continuing Students
Students currently enrolled in the 2016 fall semester enroll for Winter Intersession October 31 - November 22, 2016, during their Registration Windows. The Winter Intersession is a separate term.

To register for a Winter Intersession course using myUK, choose “Academic Year 2016-2017, Winter Intersession 2016”.

New Students
Students not enrolled at UK for the fall semester must apply for admission to be eligible for the Winter Term. The priority deadline is October 15, 2016 for both degree seeking and non-degree seeking students. Students will receive registration instructions and information with their acceptance letters. For questions about admission and registration, contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission and University Registrar at (859) 257-2000.

Withdrawing
After December 19, 2016, students may not use myUK to withdraw. To withdraw after December 19, contact the Registrar’s Office at (859) 257-8729.

Course and Instructor Information
Visit the Winter Intersession Web site at: www.uky.edu/registrar/winter-intersession to view course syllabi, course policy statements, and instructor information. Estimated student fees and other expenses associated with travel courses are also posted. Students should review course information at the Winter Intersession Web site prior to enrolling in courses.

Financial Aid
Financial aid is not available for the Winter Intersession.

Books
The UK Bookstore, Kennedy Book Store, Wildcat Textbooks, and eCampus.com carry Winter Intersession books. Copies of their hours immediately preceding and during the Winter Intersession are available in the Summer School/Winter Intersession Office, 10 Funkhouser Building, (859) 257-8725.

Weather-Related and Other Class Cancellations
If classes are cancelled due to severe weather, UK will alert local media, normally by 6:00 A.M. For the most up-to-date and complete information, call the UK Infoline at (859) 257-5684; turn to UK Cable Channel 16; or visit UK’s home page at: www.uky.edu.

If it becomes necessary to cancel any Winter Intersession classes for any reason, faculty will add sufficient additional time to all remaining class sessions to meet university requirements and complete course coverage.
