Credit Where Credit is Due: Plagiarism & Citations

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title/Topic</th>
<th>Writing: Credit Where Credit is Due: Plagiarism &amp; Citations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Time Allotted</td>
<td>50 Minutes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Materials Needed</td>
<td>Computer, Projector and Screen, Sound System, APA or MLA and Plagiarism worksheets (will be provided)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Purpose/Goal and Rationale</td>
<td>Provide students with an overview on APA or MLA style requirements, resources for APA or MLA style, a working definition of plagiarism, and best practices for avoiding plagiarism.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learning Outcomes (Use action verbs)</td>
<td>Students will be able to identify what is and is not considered plagiarism. Students will recognize American Psychological Association (APA) or Modern Language Association (MLA) as a research and reference style guide. Students will learn 2-3 APA or MLA style rules for a cover page, in-text citations and references pages. Students will understand the difference between paraphrasing and plagiarism.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Plan (indicate where you are rounding the learning cycle and include time parameters) | 5 minutes—Ice Breaker Getting to Know the Class
Transformative Learning Services Overview
Presentation U!
The Study
Academic Coaching
25 minutes—Lecture on APA or MLA style and Plagiarism
-Plagiarism
  Defining plagiarism: Intentionally or unintentionally taking someone else’s ideas or work and trying to pass it off as your own
  Types of plagiarism:
  Intentional: Knowingly and purposefully taking the work of another person and passing it as your own
  Unintentional: Incorrectly citing or paraphrasing the work of someone else
  How to avoid plagiarism
  Paraphrasing (How to paraphrase)
  Citations (How to use citations to give credit to the original author)
-Kahoot Activity (Requires students with phones)
-Explanation of Disciplinary Style Guides (APA, MLA, Chicago)
-APA or MLA
  Cover Page Formatting (Title, Running Heads, Margins, Page Numbers)
  In-Text Citations & Body Paragraphs (Discuss proper citation format)
  Reference Page Format (How to create your reference page, and how to create citations) |
15 minutes—APA or MLA and Plagiarism Group Identifying Activity

NOTE Instructors will have the option to choose between APA or MLA instruction