Which aspects of the course were most helpful? Why?

Comments
The most helpful part of this class was all of the negotiation simulations. They were awkward at first but as we got more comfortable it was an amazing way to put course content into action. It really helped me feel more comfortable with the material and understand everything that goes into mediation and negotiation.
Hands on simulations and class exercises to understand the course content.
The power points were all posted to canvas so it made studying easier. Also weekly quizzes reflected exam questions.
I think that the whole course was helpful. This class applied to the real world and I think that the quizzes really helped with learning the high points of the class and what we were expected to learn.
Learning the course content is always helpful, but something extra helpful about this class was that we were able to practice course concepts during in-class simulations.
Getting to collaborate with my other classmates helped me understand the material a lot more.
Application to real world
the professor was amazing
In class lectures and slide decks. As well as the weekly quizzes.
The professor was helpful

Which aspects of the course would you change? How and Why?

How long he talks
Nothing. I loved this course and always look forward to it.
N/A
the grading on the last paper. graded too hard
Nothing, this course is great. In the future I would not give the option to do the Final Presentation as a group. I felt as if I was picking up slack.
The final project was over barring

Which aspects of the instructor Derek Lane were most helpful? Why?

Comments
Dr.Lane is an AMAZING addition to the University of Kentucky and the college of Communication and Information is lucky to have him. He is incredibly knowledgeable and very passionate about the topic. His class has been one of my favorite that I have taken at UK and I would love to have him as my teacher again. Dr.Lane made this class so fun and really helped us all understand every aspect of Negotiation and mediation.
Extremely knowledgeable and presented course content in a very hands on learning experience.
He had us work in groups a lot and gave lots of clear examples. Seemed very passionate about his subject and made the class very interesting.
He was very reassuring. At the beginning of the course it seems a bit overwhelming. As the class goes on it seemed very well paced and informative.
This was an amazing class with an even better professor!
