

The Philosophy of Leibniz and Kant

Third Annual Conference of the Leibniz Society of North America in collaboration with the North American Kant Society

September 25-27
University of Kentucky
Lexington, Kentucky

Program

Friday, 25 September

3:00 Coffee

3:30 Welcome

Chair: Mark Kulstad (Rice)

3:45 Donald Rutherford (UC-San Diego), “Exercises in Amphiboly”

5:00 Break/Refreshments

5:15 Martha Brandt Bolton (Rutgers), “Leibniz and the Fallacy of Amphiboly”

7:00 Reception, Commonwealth House, Gaines Center for the Humanities

Saturday, 26 September

8:30 Coffee

Chair: Karl Ameriks (Notre Dame)

9:00 Nick Stang (Miami), “The Phenomenisms of Leibniz and Kant”

10:15 Anja Jauernig (Notre Dame), “Kant and Leibniz on Sensible and Intellectual Representations”

11:30 Break/Refreshments

11:45 Alison Laywine (McGill), “Leibniz and the Transcendental Deduction”

1:00 Lunch

Chair: Gregory Brown (Houston)

3:00 Ursula Goldenbaum (Emory), “The Bathos of Experience: Kant’s Move from Locke to Leibniz malgré lui within the Battle of Pre-established Harmony vs. Influxus physicus”

4:15 Break/Refreshments

4:30 Patrick Kain (Purdue), “The Development of Kant’s Conception of Divine Freedom”

5:45 Business Meeting of the Leibniz Society of North America

7:00 Dinner, Bombay Brazier (102 West High Street)

Sunday, 27 September

8:30 Coffee

Chair: Sukjae Lee (Ohio State)

9:00 Brandon Look (Kentucky), “Logic, Analyticity and Truth from Leibniz to Kant”

10:15 Des Hogan (Princeton), “Mathematical Inference in Kant”

11:30 Break

11:45 Eric Watkins (UC-San Diego), “Kant, Crusius, and the Notion of Existence”

All sessions will be held in the Bingham-Davis House, Gaines Center for the Humanities, 218 East Maxwell Street.

Generously supported by:

The College of Arts & Sciences, University of Kentucky

The Office of the Vice-President for Research, University of Kentucky

The Department of Philosophy, University of Kentucky

The Consulate General of the Federal Republic of Germany, Chicago