

Creating Your Wikipedia Page

1. Begin at http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mathematics\_education Read up on this page...especially the "Recent Controversy over US Mathematics Education" (aka, the Math Wars)
2. As you are reading through and looking through the wiki page, feel free to search for more specific topics that interest you. Before you choose a topic, you must make sure it does not already exist!
3. Once you are ready to start on your page, click on the Sign in/Create an account on the top right hand corner of any page. Do not edit anything without creating your account. Be creative with your username and avoid using your real name as it will be posted on the wikipages.
4. Go through the introduction to creating your wikipedia:
<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wikipedia:Introduction>
5. Get more specific with creating your new page:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wikipedia:Your\_first\_article

**Please note that you need to cite specific references. Your article analyses and your work on your action research project could be helpful in this area!**
6. Your task is to create a Wikipedia page with your topic so when you feel you are ready, go ahead and get started! Remember that you can edit Wikipedia pages at any time, so get a shell up and start going from there. Who knows...maybe someone will jump on and help you start editing it!
7. We will be uploading some video clips to your wikipage, so keep that in mind when you are creating your page.
8. See Mathematics Knowledge for teaching for an example of a page I created.
9. Don't be afraid to be bold and creative!! Remember, this is not a project that will happen in one day or overnight...be patient and keep adding to it as you find out more information. If you need help or have more questions, please ask!
