Query Repository Views

Definition – A view is a logical grouping of data. A (data) view provides a filtered look at one or more tables. The view provides both a simplified picture of the data (i.e. automatic joins, redefines) and enforces security (based on IDMS security).