3. Heads (cephalons) with long spines, bumps, or other attachments

These ideas for trilobite masks were drawn at the Kentucky Geological Survey, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY. For references and more information go to the trilobite section of the KGS web site at http://www.uky.edu/KGS/