Tuesday Speaker Series

September 6th – October 11th
12 – 1 p.m. (Bring your lunch, if you like)
Northside Branch – Lexington Public Library
1733 Russell Cave Rd.

Tuesday, Sept. 6th
We’ve Been Here Since Boone:
A Brief History of Black Women in Kentucky
Karen Cotton McDaniel, Ph.D., Co-Creator & Co-Author
Kentucky African American Encyclopedia

Tuesday, Sept. 13th
Geology Rocks! Coral Reefs, Coal Forests, Continental Collisions & Catastrophe - the Construction of Kentucky
Diana Rast, Retired Researcher
Focus Areas: Volcanic & Earthquake Studies

Tuesday, Sept. 20th
Personal Safety, Identity Theft and Scams
Officer Bige Towery, Director
Community Services, Lexington Police Department

Tuesday, Sept. 27th
African Americans and the Military in the Early 1900s
Michael Jones, Former Curator
Kentucky Historical Society

Tuesday, Oct. 4th
Genetics & Healthy Brain Aging
Gregory A. Jicha, M.D., Ph.D., Professor of Neurology
Sanders-Brown Center on Aging, UK

Tuesday, Oct. 11th
Finding Your Family: Beginning Genealogy Research
Sarah Hubbard, Manager
Kentucky Room Archival Collection, Lexington Public Library

This Series is presented in collaboration with the Lexington Public Library, Northside Branch.
For more information on lifelong learning opportunities for adults 50+ contact the OLLI Office at:
859-257-2656, www.uky.edu/OLLI
OLLI at UK...Where Curiosity Never Retires!