COME OUT VIRGINIA
Don't let me wait
You Catholic girls
They built you a temple and much too late Ah but sooner or later it locked you away Ah but they never told you the comes down to fate I might as well be the one price that you pay The things that you might have done

Well they for only the good die young that's what I said only the good die young Only the good die young You might have heard I run with a dangerous crowd. We ain't too pretty we say there's a heaven for those who will wait. Some say it's better but ain't too proud I'd rather laugh with the sinners than bit too loud but that never hurt no one cry with the saints. The sinners are much more fun.

So come on Virginia show me a sign.
Send up a signal I'll throw you a line
That stained glass curtain you're hiding behind Never lets in the sun Darlin' Only the good die young woh
Only the good die young
Only the good die young
You got a 1) nice white dress and a 2) INSTRUMENTAL

party on your confirmation

You've got a brand new soul

and a cross of gold G

It's a pity they didn't give you Said your mother told you all I could

F

quite enough information give you was a reputation

C

you didn't count on me
She never cared for me

D

when you were counting on your rosary
But did she ever say a pray'r for me
