COMMUNICATION & PUBLIC HEALTH

Dean and Faculty selection

The Kentucky Diversity Film Festival (KTDFF) will feature professionally made documentaries that highlight the rich diversity in our Commonwealth. In addition, the festival will screen several student films that also speak to diversity in some way. Students will submit short films (20 minutes or less) that they have created, and the Diversity and Inclusion Committee of the College of Communication and Information will evaluate the student films, choosing three for awards: first, second, and third place.

The awards will serve to a) motivate the students to create and submit films that address diversity and b) reward students for successful films. Overall, the purpose of this process is to celebrate diversity and inclusion on the University campus and across the Commonwealth.

IC-20 International Center LA-3
UK Confluence Institute PLA-1
American Marketing
Association Design PLA-2

The AMA-UKCI Case Competition brings together students from the American Marketing Association and gives them a real-world application of skills, devising marketing plans to fill the needs of various (UKC) programs. Through the process, students also learn more about what the UKC does and the purpose it serves, inviting students to try more of its programs. To acknowledge the winner of the competition, as decided on by a panel of UK officials.
