The award seeks to help undergraduate students gain skills that make them more competitive for graduate programs and/or professional employment after completion of their undergraduate degree. Students who meet the following criteria will be eligible for the award: are full-time University of Kentucky undergraduate students, with a declared major or minor in Geography, Mapping & GIS, or Urban Studies. Have an overall GPA of 3.0 or higher, or petition by the Director of Undergraduate Studies (DUS). Have completed at least 60 hours toward the Bachelors' degree, and at least 12 hours in Geography at the University of Kentucky, or petition by the DUS. Students who wish to request support from the UEA must submit a 300-500 word description of the proposed activity and a scope of work to the DUS. | Check | $400-$600 | Restricted or General (GEO Development Fund) | 6/11/2021 | Chair, Dean, Provost | $1,500 |
To honor our programmatic commitments to engage in and encourage antiracist scholarship, the UK Jewish Studies faculty announces the 2021 Jewish Studies Undergraduate Research Prize for Diversity in Jewish Studies, an award which supports and recognizes outstanding undergraduate research on Black Jews and other Jews of Color, Black-Jewish relations, and/or antiracist scholarship in Jewish studies broadly conceived. Essays authored by University of Kentucky students may come from any disciplinary approach and should be no more than 20 pages in length.

The essays are evaluated by the Jewish Studies Advisory Faculty, and awards given to be an incentive for completing the survey. Randomly selecting a student who has completed the survey.

EN-71 Engineering Biomedical Joyce M. Evans Excellence in Service Award
Recognition of a Biomedical Engineering student who exemplifies outstanding BME-related extracurricular activities performed by biomedical engineering students. The Evans Award for Excellence in Service is named in honoring Joyce M. Evans, Joyce is a retired senior research associate of F. Joseph Halcomb III, M.D., Department of Biomedical Engineering (BME) who has been a fixture of the BME Department and its predecessor, the Center for BME, for almost 50 years. Over these years, Joyce has made crucial contributions in pioneering discoveries about the effect of space travel on the cardiovascular system as well as musculoskeletal dynamics to support NASA’s space exploration programs. Additionally, Joyce exemplified the true meaning of touching people’s lives through her selfless service. Her steady guidance, unrelenting support, and ability to see potential in trainees before they themselves realized it, have helped make trainees future leaders. Among these leaders is F. Joseph Halcomb, III, M.D., the benefactor of the BME department.
To recognize the outstanding extracurricular activities performed by biomedical engineering students, with emphasis on activities related to the society and biomedical engineering profession.
Students who have made a great impact on advancing the mission of the BME department through their leadership and engagement in extracurricular activities including but not limited to organizing education, social, career development events; leading and participating in BME-related outreach activities; serving/volunteering in BME-related professional societies or conferences; impact of the nominee’s extracurricular activities on the BME community.
