COM-13 Communication & Information
Kentucky Diversity Film Festival Student Submission Award
The Kentucky Diversity Film Festival (KYDFF) will feature professionally-made documentaries that highlight the rich diversity in our Commonwealth. In addition, the festival will screen several student films that also speak to diversity in some way. Students will submit short films (20 minutes or less) that they have created, and the Diversity and Inclusion Committee of the College of Communication and Information will evaluate the student films, choosing three for awards: first, second, and third place.
The awards will serve to a) motivate the students to create and submit films that address diversity and b) reward students for successful films. Overall, the purpose of the process is to celebrate diversity and inclusion on the University campus and across the Commonwealth.
Students' films will be evaluated in five areas: topicality, cinematography and audio, originality, editing, and overall quality. Films will be rated in each area. The films with the highest scores will win the competition.
Cash Prize, Certificate
