Kentucky Diversity Film Festival Student Submission Award
The Kentucky Diversity Film Festival (KDFFF) will feature professionally-made documentaries that highlight the rich diversity in our Commonwealth. In addition, the festival will screen several student films that also speak to diversity in some way. Students will submit short films (20 minutes or less) that they have created, and the Diversity and Inclusion Committee of the College of Communication and Information will evaluate the student films, choosing three for awards first, second, and third place.
The awards will serve to a) motivate the students to create and submit films that address diversity and b) reward students for successful films. Overall, the purpose of this competition is to celebrate diversity and inclusion on the University campus and across the Commonwealth.

CON PhD Student Dissertation Research Award
This award will be available to CON PhD students who have completed degree requirements and are working on original research to complete their dissertation requirements.
Dissertations must demonstrate a student’s ability to make a significant contribution to the academic discipline of nursing through research and scholarship. Many nursing research projects require financial resources for specialized equipment, data collection and processing and/or other services. Resources to support student research are limited.
Research proposals and budgets must be reviewed/approved by the student’s dissertation committee and the DGS.
