Kentucky State Agencies With Water Responsibilities

Joseph L. Taraba
Associate Extension Professor and
Extension Specialist in Agricultural Engineering

On the following pages are a list of Kentucky state government agencies that have responsibilities and programs that relate to water in the areas of quality, health, supply, financing, flood control, recreation and tourism. For local programs on water, one of these agencies might be able to supply material, personnel or other programming information that would aid of your local extension water issue goals.
