

Checklist for Nutrient Management Plan Development

A description of the farming operation

- Specifically what do they do?

Animals

- Type, Number, and Size of Animals Produced.
- Period of time animals are confined.

Facilities

- Types of Barns
- Type of Manure Storage System(s)
- Capacity of Manure Storage System(s)
- Manure Handling System(s)

Crops Produced

- Type of Crop, Acreages, and Average Yields

Description of Manure Application Method(s)

- How its Accomplished
- Time of the Year
- What's New/What's Existing

Inventory of all nutrient sources produced or applied on the farm

Soil test results, manure analysis results, and organic by-product analysis results

A description of how normal mortalities will be managed and a realistic plan for a catastrophic failure

Include Worksheets 1, 2, and 3 as needed