WHO WE ARE

About Work-Life
At the University of Kentucky, we want you to succeed both professionally and personally. UK Work-Life is here to help you meet your personal and professional goals. We also administer the UK@Work survey to help employees and leaders recognize strengths and opportunities within their work environments.

We can help you and your family.
UK Work-Life helps employees find solutions to the challenges of balancing work and home life, with information on:

- ‘No School’ day camps
- Big Blue Family Care and back-up care solutions
- Child care options
- Resources for new parents
- Information about benefits, leave time and resources to help make the transition to parenthood as smooth as possible
- Lactation in the workplace guidelines to encourage and support mothers in the workplace
- Elder care information

Experienced counselors are available for your needs.
The Work+Life Connections employee counseling resource offers confidential services including short-term counseling, mental health screening and assessment and referrals. UK employees get up to five free sessions per fiscal year. Sessions can be used for employees, children or partners. Our team of therapists is available to discuss concerns including:

- Mental and emotional health including depression, anxiety and grief
- Family matters including parenting, separation and divorce
- Work situations including challenges with performance and communication
- Alcohol and drugs
- Communication and relationships
- Challenging situations including crisis, grief and change
- Uncertainty if you’re experiencing symptoms of a mental health condition
