Undergraduate students may repeat one (1) time a maximum of three (3) different courses. The last grade earned becomes the grade used in calculating cumulative grade point average, even if it is lower than the original grade.

Form must be returned to your advisor by the last day of dead week (week before final exams).

Student Name: _______________________________________________

Student ID Number: __________________________________________

Student Signature: __________________________________________

Date: ______________________________________________________

Course: _____________________________________________________

First semester taken: _________________________________________

Second semester taken: _______________________________________

College Approval: _____________________________________________

Date: ______________________________________________________

Repeat options used:

1st ______

2nd ______

3rd ______