(3)

This course is designed to assist students in transitioning into majors in the College of Arts and Sciences with a focus on a deeper understanding of research and liberal arts education at a tier 1 research institution. Through lectures, discussions, exercises, and out-of-class assignments, A&S 141 will enable students to actively develop and maintain skill sets and information relevant to their major and planned career path while also emphasizing the interdisciplinary nature of college learning. Prereq: A&S Major; acceptance to Academic Preparation Program.

A&S 150 YOUR CAREER AND ACADEMIC JOURNEY.

This course simplifies the complex process of choosing a major by leading students through personal, academic and occupational information searches. It offers a natural progression for decision making by using thought-provoking self-exploratory activities. Whether choosing or changing a major, the discovery process examines different perspectives, such as relating interests, skills and values to academic fields of study. Once specific academic alternatives are identified, a search of occupational information helps students examine the career possibilities that specifically relate to the majors they are considering.
