1. How does this course provide for timely and appropriate interaction between students and faculty and among students?
   Does the course syllabus conform to University Senate Syllabus Guidelines, specifically the Distance Learning Considerations?

2. How do you ensure that the experience for a DL student is comparable to that of a classroom-based student’s experience? Aspects to explore: textbooks, course goals, assessment of student learning outcomes, etc.

3. How is the integrity of student work ensured? Please speak to aspects such as password-protected course portals, proctors for exams at interactive video sites; academic offense policy; etc.

4. Will offering this course via DL result in at least 25% or at least 50% (based on total credit hours required for completion) of a degree program being offered via any form of DL, as defined above?
   If yes, which percentage, and which program(s)?

5. How are students taking the course via DL assured of equivalent access to student services, similar to that of a student taking the class in a traditional classroom setting?

6. How do course requirements ensure that students make appropriate use of learning resources?

7. Please explain specifically how access is provided to laboratories, facilities, and equipment appropriate to the course or program.
8. How are students informed of procedures for resolving technical complaints? Does the syllabus list the entities available to offer technical help with the delivery and/or receipt of the course, such as the Information Technology Customer Service Center (http://www.uky.edu/UKIT/)?

9. Will the course be delivered via services available through the Distance Learning Program (DLP) and the Academic Technology Group (ATL)? NO

If no, explain how student enrolled in DL courses are able to use the technology employed, as well as how students will be provided with assistance in using said technology.

10. Does the syllabus contain all the required components? NO

11. I, the instructor of record, have read and understood all of the university-level statements regarding DL.

3. Currently, is this course taught off campus?
   ☐ Yes ☐ No

4. Proposed to be taught off campus?
   ☐ Yes ☐ No

   If YES, enter the off campus address:

5. Are significant changes in content/student learning outcomes of the course being proposed?
   ☐ Yes ☐ No

   If YES, explain and offer brief rationale:

6. Course Relationship to Program(s).
   a. Are there other depts and/or programs that could be affected by the proposed change?
      ☐ Yes ☐ No

   If YES, identify the depts. and/or programs:

   b. Will modifying this course result in a new requirement\(^1\) for ANY program?
      ☐ Yes ☐ No

      If YES\(^2\), list the program(s) here:

7. Information to be Placed on Syllabus.
   a. ☐ Check box if changed to 400G or 500.

   If changed to 400G- or 500-level course you must send in a syllabus and you must include the differentiation between undergraduate and graduate students by: (1) requiring additional assignments by the graduate students, and/or (2) establishing different twoner grades in the course for graduate students. (See SP 3.1.4.)

\(^1\)See current description regarding minor course change. Minor changes are sent directly from dean's office to Senate Council Chair. If Chair denies the change as "not minor," the form will be returned to appropriate academic program for normal processing and contact person is informed.

\(^2\)Courses are typically made effective for the semester following approval. No courses will be made effective until all approvals are received.

\(^3\)Signature of the chair of the cross-listing department is required on the Signature Routing Log.

\(^4\)Removing a cross listing does not drop the other course – it merely unlists the two courses.

\(^5\)Generally, undergraduate courses are developed such that one semester hr of credit represents 1 hr of classroom meeting per wk for a semester, exclusive of any lab meeting. Lab meeting must meet at least two hrs per wk for a semester for 1 credit hour. (See SP 4.2.3)

\(^6\)You must also submit the Distance Learning Form in order for the course to be considered for DLI delivery.

\(^7\)In order to change a program, a program change form must also be submitted.
Major Course change proposal for ENG 252:

ADDING option of DISCUSSION.

ENG 252 is a survey course offered by the English Dept. In the past few years we have been offering it to larger groups of students. We propose to give faculty teaching the course the option of offering the class as a lecture with a discussion section.

For instance, in the proposed syllabus, the course meets as a lecture on Mondays and Wednesdays for an hour. On Friday, the class is divided into smaller groups of students who meet with a teaching assistant for one hour. During that hour, students may ask questions about the lectures and class assignments. The teaching assistant will facilitate discussion and group work that will allow the students to become more active learners of the course material.

Some professors may choose to continue to offer the course as a lecture. This change would offer them the option—but not compel them—to offer the course in a 2 hour lecture, one hour discussion format.

The change does not affect student learning outcomes or any other aspect of the course.

A survey of American literature from the Civil War to the present, with an emphasis on different genres, periods, and cultural characteristics of later periods in U.S. history. The course explores the changing social conditions in which American literature was produced such as the Roaring 20's, the Cold War, and the upheaval of the 1960's and several key literary movements, such as the Harlem Renaissance, Modernism, and Postmodernism. Texts and authors covered may include Edith Wharton's House of Mirth, Nella Larsen's Quicksand, Ernest Hemingway, Toni Morrison, the poetry of Marianne Moore and Elizabeth Bishop, and more. Lecture or Lecture and Discussion. Fulfills ENG major Historical Survey Requirement. Provides ENG minor credit. Credit will not be given to students who already have credit for ENG 335.

Required Texts, available in the campus bookstore (please buy these editions if possible):
Author, Title, Edition, Publisher ISBN
Twain, Mark Adventures of Huckleberry Finn
James, Henry Daisy Miller
Wharton, Edith House of Mirth
Stein, Gertrude Three Lives
Hemingway, Ernest In our time
Fitzgerald, F. Scott Great Gatsby
Faulkner Absalom, Absalom
Morrison, Toni Song of Solomon
O'Brien, Tim Things They Carried
Poetry packet online-Canvas

Student learning outcomes:

-Students will read and discuss a range of canonical American literary texts from the period 1865 to the present

-Students will develop a knowledge of historical and cultural contexts in which to interpret American literature

-Students will develop and demonstrate critical reading, analytical, and writing skills

Requirements:
-Participation: Attendance and participation are required. Class preparation will be measured through quizzes, which will be figured into the participation grade. Unexcused absences will be counted as a zero for participation that day. Excused absences will be excused and students will be given full credit for participating that day, and will be expected to get notes from classmates or to meet with the professor for a briefing on what was missed.

Excused Absences:
Students need to notify the instructor of absences prior to class when possible. S.R. 5.2.4.2 defines the following as acceptable reasons for excused absences: (a) serious illness, (b) illness or death of family member, (c) University-related trips, (d) major religious holidays, and (e) other circumstances found to fit "reasonable cause for nonattendance" by the professor. Students who miss class for excused reasons will have a week (or other mutually agreed upon time) to make up any missed work.
Fall 2016 section 001

Verification of Absences:
Students may be asked to verify their absences in order for them to be considered excused. Senate Rule 5.2.4.2 states that faculty have the right to request "appropriate verification" when students claim an excused absence because of illness or death in the family. I require excuses from a medical professional in the case of illness.

-Quizzes. Finishing the reading on time is essential to our success in this course. To help keep you on track, I will give unannounced, short quizzes that will allow me to assess whether or not you have completed the reading assigned for that day. Quizzes will be graded pass/fail and will be figured into your participation grade.

-2 short analytical papers (5 pages/1250 words) due according to the dates posted below.

-Midterm

-Cumulative final exam

Grade Distribution: Participation (15%), Paper #1 (20%), Paper #2 (20%), Midterm (20%), Final (25%)

Midterm Grades: All students will receive a midterm grade in accordance with University policy.

Numerical Grading Scale: 100-90=A; 80-89=B; 70-79=C; 60-69=D; lower than 60=E.

Academic Integrity: Part II of Student Rights and Responsibilities (available online at http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/part2.html) states that all academic work, written or otherwise, submitted by students to their instructors or other academic supervisors, is expected to be the result of their own thought, research, or self-expression. In cases where students feel unsure about a question of plagiarism involving their work, they are obliged to consult their instructors on the matter before submission.

When students submit work purporting to be their own, but which in any way borrows ideas, organization, wording or anything else from another source without appropriate acknowledgment of the fact, the students are guilty of plagiarism.

Plagiarism includes reproducing someone else's work, whether it be published article, chapter of a book, a paper from a friend or some file, or whatever. Plagiarism also includes the practice of employing or allowing another person to alter or revise the work which a student submit as his/her own, whoever that other person may be. Students may discuss assignments among themselves or with an instructor or tutor, but when the actual work is done, it must be done by the student, and the student alone.

When a student's assignment involves research in outside sources or information, the student must carefully acknowledge exactly what, where and how he/she has employed them. If the words of someone else are used, the student must put quotation marks around the passage in question and add an appropriate indication of its origin. Making simple changes while leaving the organization, content and phraseology intact is plagiaristic. However, nothing in these Rules shall apply to those ideas which are so generally and freely circulated as to be a part of the public domain. (Section 6.3.1).

The minimum penalty for an academic offense, such as cheating or plagiarism, is an E in the course (Section 6.4.1).

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations, please see the instructor as soon as possible during scheduled office hours. In order to receive accommodations in this course, you must provide the instructor with a Letter of Accommodation from the Disability Resource Center (725 Rose Street, Multidisciplinary Science Bldg, Suite 407). Phone: 257-2754. Director: David Beach dtbeac1@uky.edu
