A. Student Government Association

The University of Kentucky Student Government Association is recognized by the Board of Trustees, administration, the Staff Senate and the University Senate as the official representative of the student body authority in University matters to ensure a maximum of self-government and to create mutual respect, collaboration and cooperation between students and the faculty, staff and administration. It shall develop rules for its composition and procedures, and provide services to the students, staff, faculty, and administration of the University. These rules shall be consistent with the vision, mission and values of the University and shall be governed by the University's policies and procedures, including those prescribed in the Governing Regulations, Administrative Regulations and University Senate Rules. Copies of the Student Government Association rules and approved changes shall be provided to all members of the student body of the University, the Secretary of the Staff Senate, the Secretary of the University Senate, Vice President for Student Affairs, the President, and the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. The President of the Student Government Association shall be considered to be the President of the student body of the University as specified in KRS 164.130.

The Student Government Association may have additional responsibilities delegated to it by the President or the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. The Vice President for Student Affairs shall have administrative oversight of the Student Government Association in matters pertaining to the expenditure of university funds. The Vice President for Student Affairs shall also ensure that any action taken by the Student Government Association is consistent with University policies and procedures, including those prescribed in the Governing Regulations, Administrative Regulations and University Senate Rules. An appeal of a decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs in any of the above matters may be made to the Provost whose decision is final. The Vice President for Student Affairs shall assign a university advisor to the Student Government Association, whose duties shall be to counsel and advise the organization and its officers as to their roles and responsibilities. The Student Government Association advisor shall review all proposed changes to the Student Government Association Constitution and By-Laws as well as rules for its composition and procedures and advise the Student Government Association concerning the consistency or inconsistency with University policies and procedures, including but not limited to the Governing Regulations, Administrative Regulations, University Senate Rules and the Code of Student Conduct.

Pursuant to KRS 61.810, the meetings of the Student Government Association are open meetings. Through the respective presiding officer, any person may request the privilege of the floor to address all meetings of the Student Government Association.

B. Student-University Relationships

The non-academic relationships between University students and the University are articulated in the document entitled, Student Rights and Responsibilities: Part I - Code of Student Conduct: Rules, Procedures, Rights and Responsibilities Governing Non-Academic Relationships, which has been adopted by the Board of Trustees and may be amended only by that body.

The academic relationships between University students and the University are incorporated in the document entitled, Student Rights and Responsibilities: Part II - Selected Rules of the University Senate Governing Academic Relationships. The rules in Part II have been adopted by the University Senate and may be amended only by that body.

Copies of the document, Student Rights and Responsibilities: Parts I and II, shall be made available to all students. The Student Rights and Responsibilities: Parts I and II are also available at www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code. Registration by the student constitutes acceptance of the policies in the Student Rights and Responsibilities governing student-University relationships. In no case, however, shall this acceptance preclude legitimate efforts to obtain amendments to this document covering these relationships.

C. The University Appeals Board - Jurisdiction

There shall be a University Appeals Board (hereinafter UAB) with specific jurisdiction over student matters. The UAB shall have either original or appellate jurisdiction over the various student matters, as established by the University Senate Rules and the Code of Student Conduct, as follows:

1. Disciplinary Offenses

In cases of disciplinary offenses where the student is sanctioned with social suspension, disciplinary suspension, or expulsion, the UAB shall have appellate jurisdiction. (Code of Student Conduct, Article II, Section 26, 27 and 28)

2. Academic Offenses

(a) In cases of academic offenses (outlined in the University Senate Rules, Section 6.3) where the student contests guilt, the UAB shall have original jurisdiction. (University Senate Rules, Sections 6.4.8 and 6.5.1.1.)

(b) In cases of academic offenses (outlined in the University Senate Rules, Section 6.3) where the only issue is the severity of the sanction, the UAB shall have appellate jurisdiction. (University Senate Rules, Sections 6.4.8 and 6.5.1.1.)

3. Violation of Student Rights

(a) In cases where a student claims a violation of student rights (outlined in the Code of Student Conduct), the UAB shall hear any case referred to it by the Dean of Students and may grant the written appeal of any student to hear a case not referred to it by the Dean of Students (Code of Student Conduct, Article I, Sections 20, 21, and 22).

(b) Registered student organizations that receive the majority of their regular operating budgets from allocations of student fee monies and/or University allocation shall have a hearing process which shall include final appeal to the UAB.

(c) The UAB shall have jurisdiction over final decisions of University hearing agencies in which a student alleges a violation of student rights. In a case involving a student election in which a candidate alleges that his or her student rights were violated, the UAB may affirm the decision of the Student Government Association appellate body, refer the matter back to the Student Government appellate body to correct the error identified by the UAB, or affirm or void the election. The jurisdiction of the UAB does not extend to the selection of the President of the Student Government Association.

4. Violation of Academic Rights

In cases where a student claims a violation of academic rights (outlined in the University Senate Rules, Section 6.1) the UAB shall have original jurisdiction. (University Senate Rules, Section 6.2.1.5)

5. College Honor Code Offenses

The UAB shall hold appellate jurisdiction over the decisions of college honor councils or committees, except that if the hearing panel, by majority of those present, decides the student's rights have been substantially violated, the hearing panel has original jurisdiction on the issue of guilt. (University Senate Rules, Section 6.6.0.)

6. Cases of Temporary Sanctions

When the Vice President for Student Affairs imposes temporary sanctions on a student, the UAB shall have appellate jurisdiction. (Code of Student Conduct, Article II, Sections 12 and 13.)

4. Temporary Appointments

- (a) If a sufficient number of the members of the UAB are not present or have been determined by the Hearing Officer to have a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest at any time when that Board has duties to perform, the President of the University or, in the President's absence, the Provost, shall make such temporary appointments as are necessary to insure that the required number of members are present.
