Attachments: College & Dept Support Letters_EDL as academic home.pdf

Hello Lee and Andrew,

I would like to request that the Senate Council consider clarifying the specific academic home of the recent Senate approved Undergraduate Certificate in Leadership Studies. The Senate wording noted that the home was the College of Education. However, we indented for the home to be indicated as the Department of Educational Leadership Studies within the College of Education.

Attached please find letters indicating support for the academic home for the Undergraduate Certificate in Leadership to be in the Department of Educational Leadership Studies specifically rather than in the College of Education generally.

In the attached file please find letters from:

- Gary Hansen, Chair of Community and Leadership Development in the College of Agriculture, Food, and Environment
- Nancy Cox, Dean of Agriculture, Food, and Environment
- Kris Ricketts, co-chair of the proposed Certificate in the Department of Community and Leadership Development
- Beth Rous, Chair of Educational Leadership Studies in the College of Education
- Mary John O'Hair, Dean of Education

Gary Hansen and I will be present at the Monday SC meeting at 3pm in the Main Building.

Best regards,

Jayson

RE: Support for Housing Leadership Studies Certificate in the Department of Educational Leadership Studies

C: Gary Hansen, Larry Grabau

We have recently learned that housing the above certificate in Undergraduate Education will not be possible, as originally intended. Thus, this collaborative effort between our College and the College of Education needs a college home. In the spirit of cooperation, we are agreeable to the placement of this certificate in the Department of Educational Leadership Studies. We believe this certificate will become a model of cross-college collaboration for certificate development, implementation, and delivery.

To Whom it May Concern:

My name is Kristina Ricketts, and I am the Leadership Development Specialist and a faculty member within the Community & Leadership Development department in the College of Agriculture, Food and Environment at UK. We have been collaborating with the Educational Leadership Studies (EDL) Development department in developing a university-wide leadership certificate. I will be serving as a co-director of the certificate, and completely support this certificate being housed in the EDL department.

Sincerely,

Kristina G. Ricketts, Ph.D.

Dear Dr. Blonder:

As the Dean of the College of Education, I support that the Department of Educational Leadership Studies, a unit in the College of Education, will host the Undergraduate Certificate in Leadership Studies. This undergraduate certificate is in collaboration with the Department of Community & Leadership Development in the College of Agriculture, Food and Environment. The Undergraduate Certificate in Leadership Studies is an excellent example of intercollege collaboration around leadership studies and will provide undergraduate students with the opportunity to expand their knowledge, skills and dispositions regarding school and community leadership.

Sincerely,
