Course Description:
This course introduces students to best practices and opportunities for careers and strategies for success in theatre. Theatre faculty members lecture on their particular area of theatre and illustrate ways students can succeed in each discipline. Career development emphasis includes course work, internships and summer employment. Course required for theatre majors in the first spring semester of residency.

Student Learning Outcomes
By the completion of the course the successful student will
1. demonstrate a knowledge of theatre professions and career opportunities
2. differentiate between different types of theatre venues and unions
3. examine further educational opportunities beyond the undergraduate level whether it be graduate work, professional training or internships
4. design a plan to pursue summer work in the profession and understand the importance of and strategies for networking

Required Materials:
• Fee for professional headshot for actors. (the cost can vary from $50 - $100 and this is paid directly to the photographer)
• Tickets for professional productions. (tickets prices will vary from $10 - $20 – the department will purchase tickets in order to get a group price and each students will reimburse the department by check or cash)

Description of Course Activities and Assignments
• Readings from outside relevant articles. These will come primarily from American Theatre published by Theatre Communications Group, Backstage, Playbill and Deadline Hollywood
• Personal Essays
• Resume/Headshot/Creating an on line presence.
• Class Discussions
• Attend two professional productions in the area (Louisville and/or Cincinnati), response paper
• Links to further REQUIRED reading - University Policy on Plagiarism

Course Assignments/Summary Description/Point Breakdown
• 2 Personal Essays 50 pts. ea 100
  o Essay #1-This is a reflective essay outlining your goals and plans for your undergraduate education. This essay should be well-written and clearly articulate how your undergraduate education will help you prepare to entry into the theatre or other profession.

- Essay #2 - This reflective essay completed near the end of the semester should outline your plans for your career beyond the University of Kentucky. Using what you have learned during the semester, how do you plan to pursue your career and how has the semester in this class changed your initial thinking about those plans.

- Resume/Headshot
  - Students will learn various formats for preparing a resume suitable for the theater. Each student will make up an appropriate resume and have a professional headshot taken if appropriate to their discipline. Each student will pay for the cost of materials and the photograph directly to the photographer(s).

- Web site
  - Each student will create a web site suited to their particular discipline. For acting students this would be Actors Access. For designers and technical students this would be a portfolio of their work.

- Response Papers to professional productions 50 pts ea 100
  - Two response papers (2-3 pages in length) in response to the professional productions the class attends during the semester. Each student will write from their discipline perspective.

- Participation – readings & discussion 100
  - Students are expected to complete assigned readings from the text as well as relevant articles assigned. Discussion will follow in class and each students is expected to participate. Guest speakers consisting of UK Theatre faculty members will present material on their career and work. Students are expected to follow up with questions and comments.

- Presentation – on your goals and plans. 50
  - Each student will make a short presentation at the end of the semester on goals they have established and plans for their career as they see it at this moment.

TOTAL PTS 550

Grading is done on a simple point system. Every graded component is assigned a point value. The number of points you earn is divided by the points possible for the assignment to determine the percentage (see below for corresponding percentage to letter grades). At the end of the semester, the total points earned are divided by the total points possible to determine the final grade. There is nothing weighted any heavier than any other projects, exam etc. except in so far as the number of points assigned.

Grading Scale – see point breakdown above

A 90%-100%
  - A represents exceptionally high achievement as a result of aptitude, effort, and intellectual initiative. (EXCEPTIONAL)

B 80%-89%
  - B represents a high achievement as a result of ability and effort. (ABOVE AVERAGE)

C 70%-79%
  - C represents satisfactory achievement. (AVERAGE) D 60%-69%
   o D represents unsatisfactory achievement. (BELOW AVERAGE) E 59%-0
   o E represents unsatisfactory achievement and failure.

Final Exam Information
   • There is no final exam for this course.

Mid-term Grades
   Mid-term grades will be posted in myUK by the deadline established in the Academic Calendar (http://www.uky.edu/registrar/content/academic-calendar)

Course Policies:
   • In general, I follow the Student Code of Conduct when it comes to classroom conduct and behavior.
     Please refer to that document and understand what is expected of your behavior in my class.
     http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/index.html
   • You may only makeup work for which you have an excused absence.

Submission of Assignments:
   All assignments for this course will be submitted on Canvas by the due date. Any assignment turned in late will be docked one letter grade. Each student has a three day (work day) grace period in which assignments may be turned in late. In the event an assignment is late, it will be docked one letter grade.
   After three days, you receive a failing grade for that assignment. Any assignment that is late due to absence will not be penalized if you document the absence as excused. See excused absence policy below.

Attendance Policy

Excused Absences
   Students need to notify the professor of absences prior to class when possible. Senate Rules 5.2.4.2
defines the following as acceptable reasons for excused absences: (a) serious illness, (b) illness or death of family member, (c) University-related trips, (d) major religious holidays, and (e) other circumstances found to fit “reasonable cause for nonattendance” by the professor.

   Students anticipating an absence for a major religious holiday are responsible for notifying the instructor in writing of anticipated absences due to their observance of such holidays no later than the last day in the semester to add a class. Two weeks prior to the absence is reasonable, but should not be given any later. Information regarding major religious holidays may be obtained through the Ombud (859-257-3737, http://www.uky.edu/ombud/ForStudents_ExcusedAbsences.php.

   Students are expected to withdraw from the class if more than 20% of the classes scheduled for the semester are missed (excused) per University policy.

   The following policy pertains to this class.
   1 - 2 unexcused absences    Final Grade drops one letter.
   3 unexcused absences        You fail the course.
Per Senate Rule 5.2.4.2, students missing any graded work due to an excused absence are responsible for informing the Instructor of Record about their excused absence within one week following the period of the excused absence (except where prior notification is required); and for making up the missed work. The professor must give the student an opportunity to make up the work and/or the exams missed due to an excused absence, and shall do so, if feasible, during the semester in which the absence occurred.

Verification of Absences
Students may be asked to verify their absences in order for them to be considered excused. Senate Rule 5.2.4.2 states that faculty have the right to request "appropriate verification" when students claim an excused absence because of illness, or death in the family. Appropriate notification of absences due to University-related trips is required prior to the absence when feasible and in no case more than one week after the absence.

Academic Integrity
Per university policy, students shall not plagiarize, cheat, or falsify or misuse academic records. Students are expected to adhere to University policy on cheating and plagiarism in all courses. The minimum penalty for a first offense is a zero on the assignment on which the offense occurred. If the offense is considered severe or the student has other academic offenses on their record, more serious penalties, up to suspension from the university may be imposed.

Plagiarism and cheating are serious breaches of academic conduct. Each student is advised to become familiar with the various forms of academic dishonesty as explained in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Complete information can be found at the following website: http://www.uky.edu/Ombud. A plea of ignorance is not acceptable as a defense against the charge of academic dishonesty. It is important that you review this information as all ideas borrowed from others need to be properly credited.

Part II of Student Rights and Responsibilities (available online)
http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/part2.html states that all academic work, written or otherwise, submitted by students to their instructors or other academic supervisors, is expected to be the result of their own thought, research, or self-expression. In cases where students feel unsure about the question of plagiarism involving their own work, they are obliged to consult their instructors on the matter before submission.

When students submit work purporting to be their own, but which in any way borrows ideas, organization, wording or anything else from another source without appropriate acknowledgement of the fact, the students are guilty of plagiarism. Plagiarism includes reproducing someone else's work, whether it be a published article, chapter of a book, a paper from a friend or some file, or something similar to this. Plagiarism also includes the practice of employing or allowing another person to alter or revise the work which a student submits as his/her own, whoever that other person may be.

Students may discuss assignments among themselves or with an instructor or tutor, but when the actual work is done, it must be done by the student, and the student alone. When a student's assignment involves research in outside sources of information, the student must carefully acknowledge exactly what, where and how he/she employed them. If the words of someone else are used, the student must put quotation marks around the passage in question and add an appropriate indication of its origin. Making simple changes and leaving the organization, content and phraseology intact is plagiaristic. However, nothing in these Rules shall apply to those ideas which are so generally and freely circulated as to be a part of the public domain (Section 6.3.1).

Please note: Any assignment you turn in may be submitted to an electronic database to check for plagiarism.

Accommodations due to disability (boilerplate)
If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations, please see me as soon as possible during scheduled office hours. In order to receive accommodations in this course, you must provide me with a Letter of Accommodation from the Disability Resource Center (DRC). The DRC coordinates campus disability services available to students with disabilities. It is located on the corner of Rose Street and Huguelet Drive in the Multidisciplinary Science Building, Suite 407. You can reach them via phone at (859) 257-2754 and via email at drc@uky.edu. Their web address is http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/DisabilityResourceCenter/.

Classroom Behavior Policies
In general, I follow the Student Code of Conduct when it comes to classroom conduct and behavior. Please refer to that document and understand what is expected of your behavior in my class.
http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/index.html

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a civil manner. For one thing, that means no texting or calling from mobile devices during class time. You may use a computer for note taking or other devices for recording lectures. You are expected to respect ALL members of the class. I value a diversity of opinions and try to respect your values and opinions – I expect the same from you.
