Action Items

Dear Katherine,

Yesterday the Associate Dean's group agreed unanimously to support the A&S proposal to extend the midterm grading window to midnight on the Monday after the current deadline. This would be implemented permanently for both Fall and Spring semesters; to do this would entail a small revision of senate rules. Would you please put this on the agenda for a forthcoming Senate council meeting? There is some urgency in scheduling the discussion, as it will be important to move the proposal through the full Senate well in advance of the current midterm deadlines; our hope would be to put this new policy in place this Spring semester.

Please let me know if you would like me or another representative of the Associate Deans to attend a council meeting to present the proposal.

thanks very much,

Anna
