I. Introduction

This Administrative Regulation establishes the University's policies and procedures for addressing and resolving allegations of sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, complicity in the commission of any act prohibited by this regulation, and retaliation against a person for the good faith reporting of any of these forms of conduct or participation in any investigation or proceeding under this regulations. The University's Title IX Coordinator and the Office of Institutional Equity and Equal Opportunity (IEEO) administer this regulation.

The Title IX Coordinator and the IEEO administer two separate policies that address sexual misconduct and other forms of discrimination and harassment:

- Administrative Regulation 6:1, "Policy on Discrimination and Harassment"
- Administrative Regulation 6:2, "Regulation on Sexual Assault, Stalking, and Intimate Partner Violence".

The University's Title IX Coordinator has discretion to determine which policy applies to reported behavior. Questions about which policy applies in a specific instance should be directed to the University's Title IX

II. Policy

The University of Kentucky is committed to providing a safe learning, living, and working environment for all members of the University community. Consistent with this commitment, the University prohibits sexual assault, stalking, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual exploitation, and complicity in the commission of any act prohibited by this regulation, and retaliation against a person for the good faith reporting of any of these forms of conduct or participation in any investigation or proceeding under this regulations (collectively, “prohibited conduct”). These forms of prohibited conduct are unlawful, undermine the character and purpose of the University, and will not be tolerated.

Employees or Students who violate this regulation may face disciplinary action up to and including termination or expulsion. The University will take prompt and equitable action to eliminate prohibited conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. The University conducts ongoing prevention, awareness, and training programs for Employees and Students to facilitate the goals of this regulation.

Every member of the University community is responsible for to fostering an environment free from prohibited conduct. University faculty, staff, and students may always utilize services of the University’s Violence Intervention and Prevention Center (VIP) whether or not the accused is another student or employee.

IV. Definitions

The following definitions are for purposes of this regulation and are not intended to replace or summarize the Kentucky Penal Codes.

A. Affirmative Consent

Affirmative consent means a voluntary expression of willingness, permission, or agreement to engage in specific sexual activity throughout a sexual encounter. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that he or she has the affirmative consent of the other to engage in the sexual activity. Consent cannot be inferred from the absence of a "no"; an expression of consent, verbal or otherwise, must be obtained.

Consent cannot be granted by an individual who:

1. Is incapacitated by any drug or intoxicant;
2. Has been compelled by force or threat of force;
3. Is unaware that the act is being committed;
4. Is impaired because of a mental or physical condition;
5. Is coerced by supervisory or disciplinary authority; or
6. Is less than the statutory age of consent.

B. Campus Security Authority

A Campus Security Authority (CSA) is broadly defined as an individual having responsibility for campus security and officials having significant responsibility for student and campus activities. For a specific listing of individuals designated as campus security authorities, see Administrative Regulation 6:7, Section III.E, Policy on Disclosure of Campus Security and Crime Statistics.

C. Complaining Witness

Complaining witness means any person (or his or her proxy) alleging a violation(s) of this regulation. The University may designate a proxy complaining witness, or initiate proceedings without a formal complaint from the victim of an alleged violation of this regulation.

2. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

This regulation also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, involuntary physical restraint, and/or from the consumption of alcohol or other incapacitating drugs. A person can be intoxicated without being incapacitated.

J. Physical Assault

Physical assault means threatening or causing physical harm or engaging in other conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person. Physical assault will be addressed under this policy if it involves sexual or gender-based harassment, intimate partner violence, or is part of a course of conduct under the stalking definition.

Retaliation includes threatening, intimidating, harassing, coercing or any other conduct that would discourage a reasonable person from engaging in activity protected under this policy. Retaliation may be present even where there is a finding of “no responsibility” on the allegations of prohibited conduct. Retaliatory behavior is not limited to behavior by the accused individual, and covers behavior by his or her associates, as well as third parties. Retaliation does not include good faith actions lawfully pursued in response to a report of prohibited conduct. Retaliation should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator.

Student status continues whether or not the University's academic programs are in session. Student status includes those taking courses for credit or non-credit at the University, either full-time or part-time, while pursuing undergraduate, graduate, or professional studies. An individual who withdraws after an alleged violation or who is living in the residence halls, although not enrolled at the University, is also considered a student.

U. Support Person

Support person means an advocate who may attend an informal meeting or formal hearing to provide advice, support, or guidance to either the respondent or the complaining witness. A support person may

X. University Premises

University premises means all property, buildings, and facilities owned, leased, used, or controlled by the University (including adjacent streets and sidewalks).

A. Every member of the University community is prohibited from:

1. Engaging in sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, and complicity in the commission of any act prohibited by this regulation;
2. Retaliating in any manner against an individual who makes a complaint of sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence;
3. Interfering with procedures to investigate or redress a complaint of sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence; and
4. Making an intentionally false accusation of prohibited conduct through the University's procedures.

B. Any member of the University community who engages in one of these prohibited acts against any other member of the University community may be subject to corrective action and appropriate sanctions.

VI. Reporting Complaints

A. Any University employee who witnesses or is made aware of an incident of prohibited conduct shall report it to the University Police or the Title IX Coordinator as soon as possible.

B. The University strongly encourages prompt reporting by non-employees, including victims, witnesses, and those who are made aware of incidents of prohibited conduct. Reports may be made to the University of Kentucky Police, police in the location where the violence occurred, University Violence Intervention and Prevention Center, the Dean of Students Office, the Title IX Coordinator, a Campus Security Authority, or to any University official. An incident may be reported without filing a written complaint.

C. Individuals designated as Campus Security Authorities are required by law to report certain crimes, including alleged sex offenses, stalking, and relationship violence, to the University Police or Division of Crisis Management and Preparedness. These reports are made for statistical purposes, without the inclusion of identifying information of the parties. For reporting responsibilities of individuals designated as Campus Security Authorities, see Administrative Regulation 6:7, Policy on Disclosure of Campus Security and Crime Statistics.

- D. Confidential reporting is allowed to the University Violence Intervention and Prevention Center and the University Counseling Center or Health Services when receiving counseling or medical services. Anonymous reports may also be made to the UKPD; however, because police reports are public records under state law, UKPD cannot hold reports of prohibited conduct in confidence.
- E. The University provides information on pursuing criminal or other legal action, health care, counseling, and other support services available for students, faculty, staff, and visitors who have made a complaint of prohibited conduct.
- F. The University makes a good faith effort to resolve complaints of prohibited conduct within sixty (60) days of receiving the report, however the proceedings timeframe allows for extensions for good cause with notice to the complaining witness and the respondent of the delay and the reason for the delay.
- G. The University encourages individuals who make a complaint of prohibited conduct, regardless of where the complaint is made, to also contact University Violence Intervention and Prevention Center (<http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/VIPCenter/>) for assistance in accessing and navigating services, resources, and referrals both on and off campus.
- H. Individuals who experience sexual assault, dating violence, or domestic violence are strongly encouraged to seek medical attention and be examined for physical injury, the presence of sexually transmitted diseases, or pregnancy as a result of rape.

NOTE: An individual who is considering making a criminal complaint or taking other legal action should seek medical care as soon as possible after the assault. It is important for the individual to not bathe, douche, or change clothing prior to the medical examination in order to avoid inadvertently removing important evidence. The kind of evidence that supports a legal case against an accused should be collected as soon as possible, at maximum within ninety-six (96) hours of an assault.

However, depending on the circumstances, the Title IX Coordinator may refer allegations related to discrimination and harassment for adjudication under these procedures.

II. DEFINITIONS

Definitions for these procedures are the same as the definitions in AR 6:2:

A. Affirmative Consent

Affirmative consent means a voluntary expression of willingness, permission, or agreement to engage in specific sexual activity throughout a sexual encounter. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that he or she has the affirmative consent of the other to engage in the sexual activity. A person can be intoxicated without being incapacitated.

 - Vandalizing personal property.

W. Student

Student means any person who is enrolled at UK and who has not completed a program of study in which he or she is enrolled. Student status continues whether or not UK's academic programs are in session. Student status includes those taking courses for credit or non-credit at UK, either full-time or part-time, while pursuing undergraduate, graduate, or professional studies. Persons who withdraw after allegedly violating the Code or who are living in the residence halls, although not enrolled at UK, are also considered Students.

X. Support Person

Support person means an advocate who may attend an informal meeting or formal hearing to provide advice, support, or guidance to either the respondent or the complaining witness. A support person may not represent, speak on behalf of, delay, disrupt, or otherwise interfere with the proceedings of a meeting. An attorney may serve as a support individual, although the attorney's participation is limited to the role of support individual as described herein.

Y. Title IX Coordinator

The Title IX Coordinator is the University official responsible for investigating complaints of prohibited conduct, resolving potential violations informally, facilitating the hearing process, and recommending appropriate sanctions when violations are confirmed.

Z. University Official

University official means any person employed or otherwise authorized by the University, performing assigned administrative or professional responsibilities.

AA. University Premises

University premises means all property, buildings, and facilities owned, leased, used, or controlled by the University (including adjacent streets and sidewalks).

III. INITIATING A COMPLAINT AND INVESTIGATION PROCESS

- A. Filing a Complaint: All complaints related to alleged violations of AR 6:2, regardless of where the complaint is initially received, shall be referred to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation.
- B. Confidential Reporting: Individuals may make a confidential complaint or report (where individuals receiving the complaint are not required to report incidents to the Title IX Coordinator) to the University Violence Intervention and Prevention Center (VIP Center), the University Counseling Center, or University Health Services (students only). Anonymous reports may be made to the UKPD; however, because police reports are public records under state law, UKPD cannot hold reports of sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence in confidence. In addition, certain individuals designated as Campus Security Authorities under AR 6:7 are required by law to report sex offences, stalking, and relationship violence, to the University Police or Division of Crisis Management and Preparedness. These reports are made for statistical purposes, without the inclusion of identifying information of the parties. (see AR 6:7, Policy on Disclosure of Campus Security and Crime Statistics)
- C. Dual Reporting: Violations of AR 6:2 may be both a violation of University policy and law, and as such, the University encourages complainants to make reports to both local law enforcement agencies (Lexington Police Department, University of Kentucky Police Department, or other appropriate local law enforcement agencies) and a University official. The result of an external criminal investigation does not impact whether a violation of University policy has occurred. An external criminal investigation shall not take the place of a University investigation, although such criminal investigation may supplement a University investigation. The University shall not wait for the conclusion of a criminal investigation to begin conducting its own independent investigation, take interim measures to protect the University or any member of the University community, or when necessary, to initiate hearing procedures as outlined below.

- D. Investigation: Upon receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator (or designee) shall conduct an investigation to determine if there is enough information to support and alleged violation of AR 6:2 and, if so, which violation(s) occurred.

IV. INTERIM REMEDIES

A. Interim Suspension (Students)

- A. In certain circumstances, the Title IX Coordinator), may impose an interim suspension from University premises upon receiving a complaint and prior to the completion of the disciplinary process. Upon taking such action, the Title IX Coordinator or authorized representative shall immediately notify the chair of the SMAB. The student shall be notified in writing of, and the reasons for, the interim suspension. Interim suspension may be imposed to:
- (a) Ensure the safety and wellbeing of members of the University community or preservation of University property;
 - (b) Ensure the student's own physical or emotional safety and wellbeing; or
 - (c) Ensure that normal operations of the University are not disrupted.
2. A student may appeal the interim suspension to the SMAB in writing within seven (7) business days of the notice of the interim suspension. Interim suspension shall remain in effect during the appeal. If requested in the written appeal, a student shall be given an opportunity to appear personally before the SMAB within three (3) business days of filing the appeal in order to discuss the following issues only:
- (a) The reliability of the information concerning the student's conduct, including the matter of his or her identity.
 - (b) Whether the conduct and surrounding circumstances reasonably indicate that the continued presence of the student on University premises poses a substantial and immediate threat to himself or herself or to others or the stability and continuance of normal University functions.
3. A student under interim suspension shall be given an opportunity for a prompt disciplinary hearing in accordance with these procedures.

B. Interim Suspension (Employees)

1. In certain circumstances, the appropriate unit administrator, upon the recommendation of the Title IX Coordinator, may impose an interim suspension from University premises upon receiving a complaint and prior to the completion of the disciplinary process. The accused individual shall be notified in writing of, and the reasons for, the interim suspension. Interim suspension may be imposed to:
- (a) Ensure the safety and wellbeing of members of the University community or preservation of University property;
 - (b) Ensure the accused individual's own physical or emotional safety and wellbeing; or
 - (c) Ensure that normal operations of the University are not disrupted.
2. An employee under temporary suspension shall be given an opportunity for a prompt hearing within these disciplinary procedures. Salary shall be continued during the period of suspension. Decisions on faculty suspension shall be made in accordance with GR X.B.f(3)

C. Other Interim Remedies Available

Interim remedies that may be initiated at the beginning of the complaint process and are not dependent on the outcome of the case include, but are not limited to:

1. Referral to on- or off-campus resources, such as the VIP Center or counseling;
2. Alteration of the housing (students), workplace or workstation (employees) situation for the complaining witness or respondent;
3. Removing a student from residential facilities or removing an employee from the work setting or University premises (See Interim Restriction or Suspension);
4. Limitation on contact between parties (e.g. no-contact orders, no-trespass orders);
5. Referral to academic support services, such as tutoring and testing accommodations (students);
6. Adjustments to course schedules and academic deadlines (students) or work schedules (employees);
7. Other appropriate remedies based on each individual situation.

Interim remedies listed above in C.1-7 are not subject to appeal.

V. NOTICE AND ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES

- A. The Title IX coordinator shall notify the respondent in writing of the alleged violation. The notice shall include a summary of the complaint, the alleged policy violation(s), the date and time of the pre-hearing meeting, and if applicable, interim restrictions or remedies.
- B. Notices shall be sent to the respondent's official University email address or last known mailing address no less than two (2) business days prior to a scheduled meeting. For registered student organizations, the notice shall be mailed to the organization's representative, typically the President on file with the Office of Student Involvement. Failure to read and comply with the notice is not suitable grounds for an appeal.
- C. The Title IX Coordinator schedules meetings and hearings. The meeting time and date of the pre-hearing meeting or formal hearing is determined by the respondent's and complaining witness' class or work schedule and the availability of the Title IX Investigator, Hearing Panel members, and other witnesses. A meeting or formal hearing shall only be rescheduled for good cause.

VI. INFORMAL RESOLUTION OPTION

Pre-Hearing Meeting: The Title IX Coordinator or representative shall meet with the involved parties to: (1) review the investigative report; (2) discuss the hearing process; (3) receive input from the involved parties regarding sanctions; and (4) attempt to resolve the matter without conducting a hearing. With the exception of support individuals, pre-hearing meetings are closed meetings. If the respondent chooses to resolve the allegation during the meeting, the case is closed and the appropriate unit administrator(s) shall be notified. If the complaining witness does not accept the informal resolution, or if the allegation is not resolved during the meeting, the case shall be referred to the Hearing Officer for formal resolution by a Hearing Panel.

VII. FORMAL HEARING PROCEDURES

- A. Sexual Misconduct Hearing Panel Pool: The President shall appoint up to twenty-one (21) individuals from the faculty and staff to serve as members of the Sexual Misconduct Hearing Panel Pool. Members shall receive annual training by the Title IX Coordinator on issues related to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Students are not permitted to serve.
- B. Hearing Officer: The President shall appoint an individual learned in the law to serve as the facilitator of hearings involving alleged violations of AR 6:2. The Hearing Officer shall be trained in issues related to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. The Hearing Officer convenes and presides at all meetings of the Hearing Panel but does not vote as a member of the Panel. The Hearing Officer rules on all questions of law, whether substantive, evidentiary, or procedural.

- C. Sexual Misconduct Hearing Panel: Once a case is referred to the Hearing Officer for a formal hearing, the Hearing Officer selects three (3) members at random from the Sexual Misconduct Hearing Panel Pool.
- D. Hearings: Formal hearings shall be conducted by the Hearing Panel according to the following procedures:
1. Given the nature of these incidents, and the impact on the overall University community, a representative from the University shall present the case on behalf of the University. The rights of this representative shall be same as those of the complaining witness. The burden of proof shall rest on the University.
 2. The University and the respondent shall submit to the Hearing Officer any information they wish to present at the hearing, the name(s) of support person(s) and whether the support person is an attorney, preliminary list of questions, and a possible list of witnesses six (6) business days prior to the hearing. Absent good cause, as determined by the Hearing Officer, the parties may not submit information for the hearing after this deadline. Upon the receipt of information from both parties, the Hearing Officer shall review the information submitted to eliminate any redundant, irrelevant, or prejudicial information.
 3. A respondent or complainant may request to postpone the hearing for reasonable cause. The respondent or complainant shall submit to the Hearing Officer a written request for postponement, including the reason(s) for the request, no later than five (5) business days prior to the scheduled hearing unless an unforeseen circumstance occurs. Delays of a meeting or hearing are not normally allowed because of scheduling conflicts of a support individual. The Hearing Officer may accept or deny the request, after considering the nature of the request and the incident at issue.
 4. The Title IX Coordinator shall arrange the attendance of witnesses who are members of the University community, if reasonably possible. The involved parties are responsible for arranging the attendance of witnesses who are not members of the University community.
 5. The Title IX Coordinator, in consultation with the Hearing Officer, shall create the formal hearing file. Copies of the formal hearing file shall be made available to all parties and the Hearing Panel members at least three (3) business days prior to the hearing and shall contain the Title IX investigator's report, list of witnesses, preliminary questions submitted by parties, and any other related information.
 6. Both the respondent and the University shall have the right to call relevant and necessary witnesses. Witnesses participate in a hearing to provide information to and answer questions from the Hearing Panel regarding the personal knowledge they have of the incident at issue. The members of a Hearing Panel may ask questions of the parties and all witnesses. The respondent and the University representative (not the advisors) shall also be given an opportunity to examine and cross-examine witnesses who testify at the hearing, except that the complaining witness and the respondent may not personally cross-examine each other. Instead, they may submit questions to the Hearing Officer to ask the questions on their behalf. The Hearing Officer shall screen the questions submitted, and only ask those questions deemed appropriate and relevant to the case.
 7. Witnesses other than the complaining witness shall be excluded from hearings, except for the period of their own testimony.
 8. The complaining witness and the respondent have the right to be assisted by up to two (2) support person(s) of their choice and at their own expense. Support person(s) may communicate privately with the person they support during the hearing, but are not permitted to participate directly in any hearing.

9. The hearing shall be closed to the public. The complaining witness, respondent, and their support person(s), if any, are allowed to attend the entire portion of the hearing, excluding deliberations.
10. The Hearing Officer is responsible for maintaining order and determining the sequence of events during a hearing. The Hearing Officer may direct any person who fails to comply with procedures during the hearing or disrupts or obstructs the hearing to leave the hearing.
11. All questions of law, whether substantive, evidentiary, or procedural, shall be addressed to and ruled upon by the Hearing Officer.
12. If a respondent or complaining witness fails to appear before the Hearing Panel without good cause, the information regarding the allegation shall be presented and a determination of finding shall be made in the respondent's absence.
13. The complaining witness, respondent, or a witness may request reasonable accommodations to address concerns for the personal safety that may include providing separate facilities, using a visual screen, or by permitting participation by telephone, videophone, closed circuit television, video conferencing, videotape, audio tape, written statement, or other appropriate means. However, no accommodation shall violate the due process rights of the Respondent.
14. After the Hearing Panel has reviewed the evidence presented at the hearing, the Panel shall determine whether the respondent has violated any section of AR 6:2.
15. The Hearing Panel's determination shall be made on the basis of the preponderance of evidence standard. Preponderance of Evidence means that it is more likely than not (more than 50% certain) that the Respondent is responsible for the alleged act.
16. When a Hearing Panel determines the respondent is responsible for a violation of AR 6:2, the Panel shall immediately convene a supplemental proceeding to determine a recommended sanction(s). During the supplemental proceeding, both the respondent and the complainant may submit relevant evidence or make relevant statements regarding the appropriateness of a specific sanction. The past disciplinary record of the respondent shall only be supplied to the Hearing Panel during the supplemental proceeding to consider sanctions.
17. After the hearing, the Hearing Panel shall prepare a written summary of its findings of fact, determination of responsibility, recommended sanctions if any, and an explanation of the rationale for the decision. The report shall be submitted to the University representative, the Dean of Students (for students) or the appropriate unit administrator (for employees), and the involved parties no more than seven (7) business days following a hearing, unless circumstances exist that would delay issuance of the written outcome.
18. The sanctions shall be ultimately determined and imposed by the Dean of Students (students) or the appropriate unit administrator (employees); however, the Panel's recommendation shall be considered in determining and imposing sanctions. The Dean of Students, and unit administrators are not limited to sanctions recommended by the Hearing Panel; however, if the Dean of Students or unit administrator rejects or modifies the Hearing Panel's recommendation, they shall provide reasons in writing to the Hearing Panel and the involved parties.
19. All hearings, with the exception of the deliberations, shall be recorded. The recording is the property of the University.

Members may be reappointed. The Chair shall be a person learned in the law. The Chair and members of the SMAB shall receive training from the Title IX Coordinator in matters related to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. For allegations involving students the SMAB serves in place of the University Appeals Board.

 3. A respondent and complaining witness and their support individuals have the right to review the hearing file, including any recording of the hearing, in preparation for filing an appeal.
- C. Jurisdiction: The SMAB has appellate jurisdiction over appeals related to violations of AR 6:2. The appeal is limited to:
1. Whether the hearing was conducted in accordance with the principles of due process. In such cases, the SMAB shall determine whether the hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges and information presented, and consistent with prescribed procedures providing the complaining witness a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present information regarding the alleged violation, and providing the respondent a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a response to those allegations. Specifically, the SMAB will determine whether the factual findings were clearly erroneous. In reviewing legal conclusions, the review is de novo.
 2. Whether the sanction(s) imposed was appropriate for the violation for which the respondent was found responsible.

3. Whether new information, or other relevant facts not presented at the hearing, would have altered the outcome of the hearing and such information and/or facts were not known to the person appealing at the time of the original hearing.

 5. Responses from the Title IX Coordinator, University representative, and the other party involved in the complaint, if any.
- G. SMAB Decision: Upon review of all of the information, the SMAB has the authority to do one of the following:
1. Uphold the findings and recommendations made by the Hearing Panel;
 2. Modify the Sanction; however, the SMAB may not increase a penalty.; or
 3. Remand the case back to a Hearing Panel.
- H. Remanded Cases: An appeal can only be remanded to a Hearing Panel due to procedural error or new information.
1. For issues of reversible procedural error, the Hearing Officer shall appoint a new Hearing Panel to reconsider the case; or
 2. For issues of new information, the original Hearing Panel resumes the hearing.
- I. SMAB Decision: The SMAB Chair shall communicate the outcome in writing to the involved parties .
1. For students, the decision of the SMAB is final and binding upon all involved.
 2. For employees, the decision of the SMAB may be appealed pursuant to applicable law (KRS 164.230) and/or University regulations GR I.F and GR X.B.1.f (faculty).

X. Amendment of These Procedures

In order to have the flexibility to amend the procedures as necessary to correspond to changes in the law or regulatory guidance, the President, in consultation with the General Counsel, may amend these procedures as necessary. The President shall report any material amendments to the Board of Trustees.
