Which aspects of the course were most helpful? Why?

Comments
Very organized and easy to follow instructions
The level of organization
The in class simulations.
Dr. Lane is the most supportive professor that I have ever had. He always thoroughly explains expectations and content, he is also always willing to help with anything!
Negotiation discussions
The class lecture was most helpful because it discussed in-depth content we read in the book!
The negotiation aspect of the course is the most helpful as it taught us how to be strong negotiators and helped me learn tactics and practices to use.
The simulations
The way this teacher described all parts of the class. I liked the simulation, they were helpful and a fun way to learn real life situations.
Always was willing to help and having open communication.
having in class discussions
the professor was very personable and was willing to work with you if you made a mistake or needed to change something reading quizzes and in-person negotiations
Dr. Lane went above and beyond to make sure we knew the content.

Which aspects of the course would you change? How and Why?

N/A
I wouldn't change anything.
The final paper and presentation
N/A
I would add more in class simulations, those days were super fun and helpful in putting what we have learned into perspective.
Nothing
I really would not change anything. The notes were very long so was hard to find information on them.
