

The Essential Husserl

PHI755-011 — F 11:00-11:50am

PHI755 Zoom Portal

(password: Sandmeyer)

Husserl, Edmund. The Essential Husserl: Basic Writings in Transcendental Phenomenology. Edited by Donn Welton. Bloomington: Indiana University Press, 1999.

- Table of Contents
- Bibliography

Recommended:

- Cairns, Dorion, Edmund Husserl, and Eugen Fink. Conversations with Husserl and Fink. The Hague: Nijhoff, 1976.

Secondary (Husserl primary source - original & translation - in folder titled "Secondary")

- Logische Untersuchungen I \(1913\)
- Logische Untersuchungen II \(1913\)
- Logical Investigations I
- Logical Investigations I
- Philosophy as rigorous science \(1911\)
- Ideen I \(1913\)
- Ideas I \(Kersten\)
- Hua I - Cartesianische Meditationen und Pariser Vorträge (1931 & 1929, respectively)
- Cartesian Meditations

Date	Topic	(due on day listed) Reading
------	-------	--------------------------------

Part I: Contours of a Transcendental Phenomenology

01/25-29	I. Antitheses 1. The Critique of Psychologism <table border="1" style="margin-left: 20px;"> <tr><td></td><td>Normative and Theoretical Disciplines</td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>The Arguments of Psychologism</td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>The Prejudices of Psychologism</td></tr> </table> 2. The Critique of Historicism		Normative and Theoretical Disciplines		The Arguments of Psychologism		The Prejudices of Psychologism	pp. 3-25 (22)
	Normative and Theoretical Disciplines
	The Arguments of Psychologism
	The Prejudices of Psychologism
02/01-05	II. Phenomenological Clues 3. Expression and Meaning <table border="1" style="margin-left: 20px;"> <tr><td></td><td>Essential Distinctions</td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>Fluctuation in Meaning and the Ideality of Unities of Meaning</td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>The Phenomenological and Ideal Content of the Experiences of Meaning</td></tr> </table> 4. Meaning-Intention and Meaning-Fulfillment		Essential Distinctions		Fluctuation in Meaning and the Ideality of Unities of Meaning		The Phenomenological and Ideal Content of the Experiences of Meaning	pp. 26-59 (33)
	Essential Distinctions
	Fluctuation in Meaning and the Ideality of Unities of Meaning
	The Phenomenological and Ideal Content of the Experiences of Meaning
02/08-12	III. Phenomenology as Transcendental Philosophy 5. The Basic Approach of Phenomenology <table border="1" style="margin-left: 20px;"> <tr><td></td><td>The Natural Attitude and Its Exclusion</td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>Consciousness as Transcendental</td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>The Region of Pure Consciousness</td></tr> </table>		The Natural Attitude and Its Exclusion		Consciousness as Transcendental		The Region of Pure Consciousness	pp. 60-85 (25)
	The Natural Attitude and Its Exclusion
	Consciousness as Transcendental
	The Region of Pure Consciousness
02/15-19	IV. The Structure of Intentionality 6. The Noetic and Noematic Structure of Consciousness	(recommended: Ideas I , §§ 80-83) Ideas I , §§ 84-86

	Noesis and Noema The Question of Levels Expressive Acts Noema and Object Horizons	pp. 86-112 (31)
02/22-26	V. The Question of Evidence 7. Varieties of Evidence 8. Sensuous and Categorical Intuition	pp. 113-134 (21)
03/01-05	VI. From Subjectivity to Intersubjectivity 9. Empathy and the Constitution of the Other Primordial Abstraction The Appresentation of the Other	(recommended: CM I , §§ 33-34 & 37-39) pp. 135-160 (25)

Part II: Transcendental Phenomenology and the Problem of the Life-World

03/08-12	VII. Transcendental Aesthetics (part I) 10. Perception, Spatiality and the Body Objective Reality, Spatial Orientation, and the Body The Self-Constitution of the Body	pp. 163-185 (22)
03/15-19	VII. Transcendental Aesthetics (part II) 11. A Phenomenology of the Consciousness of Internal Time Analysis of the Consciousness of Time Levels of Constitution of Time and Temporal Objects 12. Horizons and the Genesis of Perception	pp. 186-233 (47)
03/22-26	Academic Holiday
03/29-04/02	VIII. Transcendental Analytics (part I) 13. Formal and Transcendental Logic The Discipline of Formal Logic Formal Logic as Apophantic Analysis The Transcendental Grounds of Logic	pp. 234-272 (37)
04/05-09	VIII. Transcendental Analytics (part II) 14. Individuals and Sets Explication of Individuals Constituting Sets 15. Universals The Constitution of Empirical Universals Eidetic Variation and the Acquisition of Pure Universals 16. The Genesis of Judgment	pp. 272-306 (34)
04/12-16	IX. Static and Genetic Phenomenology 17. Time and the Self-Constitution of the Ego 18. Static and Genetic Phenomenological Method	pp. 307-321 (14)
04/19-23	X. Transcendental Phenomenology and the Way through the Science of Phenomenological Psychology 19. Phenomenological Psychology and Transcendental Phenomenology	pp. 322-336 (14)
04/26-30	XI. Transcendental Phenomenology and the Way through the Life-World	pp. 337-378 (41)

20. The Mathematization of Nature
21. Elements of a Science of the Life-World

05/14

Paper Submission ca. 20 page paper due (by 12noon)