Subject: Environmental Humanities Initiative - First Meeting

CAUTION: External Sender

Hello Members of the Environmental Humanities Faculty Cluster,

I've reviewed the responses to the Doodle Poll and found that the best time for our first meeting of the UK-EHI should take place on Thursday, October 28th, at 2pm. We'll meet via Zoom. As I mentioned, I will record the meeting and also take notes, the latter of which I'll post to the Environmental Humanities Initiative webpage. So, if you miss this first meeting and would like to see what we discussed and accomplished during it, you'll be able to do that.
